About Us

Koh Samui & Gulf of Thailand is recognised as one of the planet's most beautiful tropical destinations. Those who experience the island are rewarded with an idyllic tropical retreat of white-sand beaches, sapphire-blue seas, an abundance of tantalizing Thai cuisine and an unusually warm & friendly people. Koh Samui has a hinterland of forests, hills of limestone and granite and a shoreline made up of countless palm-fringed beaches and bays.

The east coast of the island offers a wide range of accommodations, restaurants and nightspots to suit every taste. The calmer north coast offers a quieter, gentler experience. When ready for some adventure and a cruising voyage there are many enthralling areas to explore nearby – Koh Tao (one of the best diving locations in Thailand) and Ang Thong National Marine Park (an archipelago of small and virtually untouched islands), are just a few. One thing you can be sure of... from the moment you arrive the beauty and relaxed atmosphere of this island will begin to cast its spell.

Gulf Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrive Koh Samui Airport. Our driver will collect guests at the airport. If requested we can request that VIP check-in formalities be carried out aboard the plane.

Driver will take guests to the boat for refreshments and unpacking. Swimming off the boat in Chaweng Beach is great and the beach is beautiful.

Day 2 - A van and driver collect guests at 09:30 to take to the Fish Temple. A great way to start the day as you will get to see the workings of a Thai Wat (Temple). We will arrive before noon and bring gifts (purchased at local markets).

Perhaps a special blessing can be arranged and your guide will explain the "do's and don'ts" of Thai Culture to ensure all feel more comfortable in the surroundings. For the children (and adult elephant fans) I suggest an elephant ride through low mountainous and waterfall areas before lunch.

It's now the hot time of the day and guests can return to the boat for lunch and a swim. As the afternoon cools the adults may want to go ashore for a 2 hr pampering session at one of the 5-star Spas.

This also may be a good time for the younger ones to visit the Canopy Top Adventures and explore the Samui jungle from the tree tops.

DAY 3 - I believe an early start is the way to begin this day. It is time to explore the surrounding islands in the immediate area. The boat will relocate to the stunning Angthong National Marine Park for some Kayaking and trekking. The Angthong Archipelago is a mere 22 NM from Samui's Chaweng Beach. From here the tender is launched and sent to the shore and a park ranger will have your kayaks ready and waiting.

Angthong is not a good overnight anchorage; instead after a long day at the marine park best to relocate to the next island of Koh Phangan. The boat relocates to Hat Rin Beach, a place famous for monthly 'Full Moon' parties where thousands of raging young tourists converge. Thus best to avoid full moon dates or experience with care.

DAY 4 - Everybody tired from yesterday's adventures? This is an optional time for snorkeling in the morning and perhaps a walk on the beach. The boat can then relocate to famed diving locale, Koh Tao, in the late afternoon. This is a great island and is famous for its diving. Just off the beach are some amazing snorkeling areas. For the more adventurous there is the famous 'Pinnacle Mounts' located a mere 2-3 NM from shore, with the best diving in the Gulf of Siam.

DAY 5 - By now you've been at sea long enough and now it is time to regroup back in Koh Samui. This will be a 40 NM mile trip and will run you back along the coast of Koh Phangan. A good option on Samui is a cultural Thai dance show and dinner at one of the island's many 5-star hotels.

The boat relocates to Koh Chang after dinner. 200 NM from Koh Samui.

DAY 6 - Discovering Koh Chang & surrounding islands. 12 09 048 N 102 19 304
There are lots of little bays and Islands in the area for exploring.

Fishing Villages – Bang Bao fishing Village

Located on the southwest of the Island Bang Bao is a pretty and photogenic village. The houses are built on stilts embedded in the sea floor and connected to each other by wooden bridges. Bang Bao is an extremely popular place to go for fresh seafood. There are plenty of restaurants to choose from and tourist orientated shops. And is also the gateway to neighbouring islands and to some of the best scuba diving spots around Koh Chang. Accommodation: guesthouse, rooms and home stays.

SalakPhet

Located on the southeast of the island, this is the oldest community on Koh Chang. Fishing is the main source of income in the village; however in recent times tourism in the form of home stays has brought a new flow of cash to the area. For those of you who wish to experience how the Thai people truly live this can be an interesting option. The beach is not suitable for swimming but you can charter yachts and organize fishing trips through the Yacht Club in SalakPhet. The seafood restaurant here is one of the main reasons tourists visit the area.

DAY 7 - This is another day for exploring the Koh Chang area with all its diversity.

DAY 8 - Suggest guests fly to Bangkok and explore the famed temples, the Grand Palace and the floating market for a few days. Check Out for boat can be from Koh Chang.
