

Super Yacht News

News about luxury Mega Yachts and SuperYachts

Monday, 7 April 2014

Tahiti Ocean Joins Asia Pacific Superyachts Network

The Papeete based Tahiti Ocean yacht agency is the latest to join the Asia Pacific Superyachts Network

The network covers the regions of: Andaman Islands, Borneo, Cambodia, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Malaysia, Maldives, Myanmar, New Zealand, Seychelles, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Vietnam and Phuket and Koh Samui, Thailand and provide ships agency services and supplies to meet every need of visiting Superyachts.

The company, based in Tahiti in French Polynesia, was the first port agency first in the South Pacific, exclusively dedicated to the service of luxury yachts visiting French Polynesia.

It was founded in 1995 when Etienne Boutin and Pascal Pique also created Pacific Avenues travel agency in 2003 to offer VIP travel and concierge services to yacht owners and develop a charter yacht portfolio.

Manager Carine Herman made this agency a success and also developed Pacific Avenues as the local retail Superyacht charter broker.

Etienne Boutin, has a Master's in International Business Administration, working for 10 years in the shipping and yachting industry before creating Tahiti Ocean.

They have been members of AYSS Superyacht global network since 1995 and a member of the Tahiti port agency association (SYNAGMAR) since 2005, Etienne notes, "Our company started services to superyachts in this area of the world and helped the local population and authorities understand how to deal with white boats.

Since 1995 we have assisted more than six hundred motor and sailing yachts from 20 to 140 meters, welcomed more than eight thousand owners and their guests, and worked with four thousand crew members to achieve the unique mix of pleasure, professionalism and self-dedication common to the modern yachting industry.”

Instrumental to the development of a charter regulation in Tahiti allowing large yachts to legally charter with reasonable taxes, the company has developed over the years a number of procedures and standards to create a favourable environment for large yachts visiting French Polynesia.

Tahiti is the largest island in the Windward group of French Polynesia, located in the archipelago of the Society Islands in the southern Pacific Ocean. It is the economic, cultural and political centre of French Polynesia. The island was formed from volcanic activity and is high and mountainous with surrounding coral reefs and is the most populous island of French Polynesia. The capital, Papeete, and nearby marina Taina, are located on the northwest coast with the only international airport in the region serving as a hub to famous Bora Bora, to the dive paradise Tuamotu islands or to remote and spectacular Marquesas archipelago.

Etienne Boutin welcomes questions from those considering a cruise to French Polynesia and reports he and his team are delighted to join the Asia Pacific Superyachts network.