THE RENDEZVOUS WILL BE HOST
TO SUPERIOR
SAIL AND POWER VESSELS FROM AMONG THE WORLD'S FINEST SUPERYACHTS

The prestigious Asia Superyacht Rendezvous will once again attract some of the world's most magnificent boats to Phuket on December 16, 17 and 18, with some vessels staying on after the annual social yachting event to enjoy further cruising trips from the island during the Christmas holiday season. "The Rendezvous will be host to superior sail and power vessels from among the world's finest superyachts", say the organisers Gordon Fernandes, GM of Asia Pacific Superyachts and Captain Charles Dwyer of S/y Yanneke Too.

Participating power and sail superyachts from international waters are well suited for this long voyage and look forward to the opportunity to catch up with other superyacht owners and captains at the Rendezvous.

Invited participants will be welcomed with an opening day cocktail party aboard one of the superyachts, following a 'Captains Briefing' setting the schedule for a series of spectacular on-water events that will see mammoth sailing vessels accompanied by power superyachts departing from Pansea Bay on a course set according to bay conditions and determined by well known Race Director, Andy Dowden.

As a sign of the escalating interest in the regional market, Rendezvous Sponsors are also returning this year, with principle sponsor, Feadship Royal Dutch Shipyards joined by other returning sponsors such as International Media Partner, Boat International Media, Host Hotel, the Surin Phuket; and co-sponsor, Asia Pacific Superyachts.

The Superyacht Rendezvous, held annually in December, is the longest-running event of its kind in Asia and boasts the largest gathering of superyachts in the region. ■
